Richmond Coachmans Rest

Richmond Coachman's Rest apartments, which are self-contained self-catering, are attached to the historic 1830s former Star and Garter Inn in a quiet garden setting within the quaint Georgian village of Richmond.

A golden elm spreads its branches right outside the window, giving shade and privacy to the comfortable studio-style, One Bedroom accommodation apartments which sleep four.

Centrally situated in the historic Georgian village you can walk to Richmond's famous sandstone bridge and the numerous restaurants and galleries.

Enjoy many happy hours browsing in the superb art, craft and antique shops; find your way through the maze, feast at the fine restaurants and tearooms. Admire the lovely old churches and picnic beside the peaceful Coal River. Pet Friendly

Forget peak hour traffic, those boring meetings and endless emails...

Touchwood Cottages in picturesque Stanley, NW Tasmania has the perfect antidote!

Three lovely cottages nestled in a landscaped garden in the centre of Stanley & at the base of 'The Nut'. Why not relax and revitalize in our quiet village setting by the sea? All attractions, great eateries and stunning beaches are just a short stroll away. Touchwood Craft Gallery also showcases the work of quality Tasmanian Artisans.

Touchwood Cottage Circa 1840 is the oldest private residence in Stanley. Beautifully decorated in period furniture with the addition of some modern comforts, she offers a large colonial kitchen, sitting room, 3 bedrooms, fully refurbished bathroom with claw foot bath and a walk in shower. This elegant 'Dame' of a cottage affords plenty of space.

Incorporating a stunning bluestone feature wall, The Studio Cottage, evokes a special charm. Carefully furnished to support the colonial past, The Studio is a large fully self contained apartment with ensuite and sea views from every window. Your tariff includes hearty continental breakfast, complimentary port & chocolates, fresh fruit bowl and luxurious bath robes.

Close the door of our oversized 'cubby house' called 'The Pines' Cottage and life's pressures simply melt away.

With a windowed panorama of the township & Sawyer Bay the scenery is constantly changing from your hill top perspective. Fully self contained, it has a queen bedroom on the mezzanine floor and twin room downstairs.
