- this is of course included in the tariff. Breakfast will be served on the verandah overlooking a paved courtyard garden, with views to the hills.

The cosy guests' lounge contains an interesting old fashioned fireplace. There is a house library of books, and about 80 current DVDs of all genres for guests to borrow during their stay.

- Spacious guest lounge with fire place
- Formal dining room (with gourmet meals on request)
- Private scenic balconies
- Breakfast Deck sitting area catches winter sun and coastal views
- Gourmet breakfasts

Situated less than 10 minutes from Maleny at beautiful Witta, this brand new 4½ star B & B has been built in a classic old colonial style for comfort and elegance.

This charming house is a land mark in the area with its iron lace verandas, and stands on nearly an acre of land. The formal garden has hedges and a fountain, roses bloom and the views off through the hills and valleys to the coast are many shades of lush green.

Sheep can be seen grazing in the distance, clouds are often close enough to touch; and at night the hills protect the sky from the lights of the coast so the display of stars is spectacular.

All rooms are ensuite. There is a formal dining area for guests who wish to stay in for dinner - just let the host know! The large chef style kitchen is able to produce gourmet meals to the highest standard so guests can stop worrying about driving home after dinner, and can enjoy a relaxed meal in house.

Breakfast time can vary to suit the guests, and will include fresh local produce. There is a wide range of menu choices available
