Inter-Action

Father and Son Adventures Family Journeys

If there is a boy in your life, and you're a boy at heart, the outdoor adventure experts at Inter-Action Experiential Learning provide safe, exciting and fun opportunities for Dads (men) and Sons (boys) to connect in active, positive ways.

Programs are designed to build bonds of trust and friendship between young people and their parents in a safe, supportive and exciting environment.

What boy (older or younger) can resist riding a mountain bike, being suspended high above the ground on a rope or paddling through the morning mist in a canoe?

Becoming 'lost' while orienteering to find your dinner or being awestruck seeing sunrise from the summit of Mt Warning are precious, memorable moments when shared.

Our sons grow up so quickly. Play, Share, Connect!
